Speedway Takes the Hurt from Bruises

It brings soothing relief. If you have rheumatism or lumbago, or any muscular trouble, try the Speedway route to quick relief. Make your muscles supple and as free from pain as when you played after school.

Speedway is not injurious. There's nothing in it to stain or grease either flesh or clothing. It does not burn or irritate. It has an agreeable odor. It's as pleasant to use as a toilet lotion. It drives pain away and brings a soothing sensation that's simply glorious to muscles that have been suffering.

If you have a sprain or a bruise step into the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Speedway. If it doesn't give you relief bring the bottle back to your druggist and get your money.

Rub a little Speedway on your tired, aching feet night and morning and learn what it means to have real foot joy. Be free from the throbs of corns and bunions. Forget being footsore at the end of the day.

PATIENTS HAVE A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Sisters of the Hospital Dis-

Young Women Sing Annual Christmas Carols.

Following the annual custom, the sisters of St. Joseph's hospital distributed to the patients at that institution Christmas day mail gifts in remembrance of the occasion. The gifts consisted of fruit and candy put up in neat boxes, the handicraft of the sisters.

The gifts were distributed about 8 o'clock Christmas eve by several children, who acted as Santa Claus. The little Misses Kathryn Kline and Clara Weber acted as reindeer, drawing a small wagon. Louis Landgraf was the driver and he distributed the gifts. The children were suitably costumed to represent the various characters and the wagon bearing the gifts was also decorated.

About 20 patients are at the hospital now and each one received a remembrance. Following the program the children and their gifts were photographed.

At 6:30 o'clock Christmas morning 12 young women of the city walked through the corridors of the hospital and sang Christmas carols to the patients. This is an annual custom and the same girls practically have taken part in the interesting program for several years. The girls who sang Christmas were the Misses Vera Buchheit, Aline McQuillen, Lillie Boles, Isabelle Buchheit, Nell Swayne, Hazel Chandler, Helen McQuillen, Marguerite White, Mae Cooper, Carrie Grimes and Helen Buchheit. XMAS IN FLORIDA IS MOST ELABORATE

English Lutheran Church Out-
does Others in Christmas
Eve Entertainments—All Churches Hold Celebration.

Christmas spirit was manifested to a marked degree by the churches and societies of Mishawaka this year and all took an active interest in the Christmas eve entertainments. Special programs, cantatas and other various entertainments were in vogue at nearly all the churches of the city Wednesday evening.

Probably the most elaborate entertainment for Christmas given by any church or society was presented at the English Lutheran church. The entertainment opened with singing by the children's Sunday school classes, after which the congregation went to the auditorium.

of the church where a beautiful entertainment was furnished by the young people of the Sunday school classes. This included the various scenes of the Annunciation, the Shepherds in the Fields, the Manger in Bethlehem. During this scene Miss Elizabeth Jontz sang a solo, "Little Town of Bethlehem". The fourth scene was King Herod and the Three Wise Men, and then Bethlehem with the Wise Men presenting their gifts. Those who took part in this entertainment were Olive Engers, as Madonna; Louise Vinsone, as Joseph; and the Peters as King Herod; Harry Jontz, Fred Petcher and Albert Jaster as the Three Wise Men, and Arthur Boever, Ray Kanis, Robert Johnson, Earl Yeakey, Charles Engers and Joseph Jontz as shepherds.

During the entertainment, appropriate music was furnished by the organist. Songs were sung by the choir. The entertainment was featured by tableaux.

After the rendition of the above program they went to the Sunday school rooms, where the feature of the evening was "Christmas in Florida." "Christmas in Florida" was a miniature reproduction, built and constructed by George Butz. It was entirely mechanical and a wonderful piece of work. Mountains were represented with tunnels with a moving train of cars continually passing through them. A merry-go-round and a swing, with a saw in motion and electrically lighted with small lights. A feature was a spraying fountain in the center with electrical colored effects. The scenic effects of Florida were in reality a reproduction of the mountains abounding with bushes and trees and wild animals. The plateaus were also featured with garden effects, sandy beaches and palm trees. The background was heavily and brightly festooned to two Christmas trees at each side of the work, which were beautifully decorated and electrically lighted with color effects.

At St. Joseph's Catholic church, beautiful services were held during the morning and afternoon of Christmas day.

At five o'clock in the morning a solemn high mass was celebrated. Rev. Dean L. A. Moench, celebrant; Rev. Simon, deacon, and Rev. Charles Scholl, sub-deacon. The choir rendered special music and the direction of Father Moench, featuring "Silent Night" with a full chorus of voices. Hundreds of persons attended this mass, the church being taxed to its capacity, and many were compelled to stand in the aisles and at the rear of the church.

At 7:30 o'clock a low mass was held, and at nine o'clock the children's mass was celebrated and at 10:30 o'clock a solemn high mass was celebrated. In the afternoon solemn vespers with benediction were held.

At the Christian church, a Christmas cantata was presented on Christmas eve and was the only Christmas service held at the church this year. The cantata was given under the auspices of the Bible students, and was entitled "Santa Claus and His Friends". The scene presented a home and fairland with a special exhibition of the domestic affection and Christmas joys. One of the features was a picture of the suspense of waiting for Santa Claus, the outdoor scene of joy when he arrived. The Christmas tree with a treat, was also a part of the program. Instrumental music furnished by the Bible school orchestra of 10 pieces, was another feature of the entertainment.

Members of the Sunday school class of the First Church of the Evangelical association gave a program appropriate to the Yuletide. The affair was under the direction of the pastor, Rev. D. D. Spangler, and the various teachers of the classes. A program of singing and speaking was rendered during an address by the pastor. The exercises closed by giving Christmas gifts which consisted of candy and fruit.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT WYATT SCHOOL

One of the very best of Christmas programs was given at the Wyatt school house Christmas eve, under the direction of the teachers, Charles Conrad and Miss Isadore Barnhart.

Wilkins gave the invocation, and then the school gave two hours of a carefully prepared program, which was greatly appreciated by all, after which Santa Claus made his appearance. A beautiful Christmas tree reached to the ceiling loaded with glittering balls and other Christmas tree decorations. Several hundred well chosen gifts were placed under the tree, to gladden the hearts of both young and old.

Nearly every one of the parents was present, besides their friends. These with 75 children made a presence of about 350 people.
